

The Proverbs 31 Prayer

Dear Father,

I can do nothing without You. I come before You, asking for You to be glorified in me. Please help me to be a virtuous and trustworthy woman who does my husband (or future husband) good all the days of my life.

Please give me a heart that delights to work, and show me how to manage my time and priorities in a way that honors You above all else. Father, Yahweh, please show me how I should spend and give of the money that You have given me, and please give me the strength to serve You with all my heart. Please break my heart for what breaks Yours, so that I can reach out to the poor and needy. Thank You that You are near to the one crushed and bruised in spirit, and that You lift up the poor and needy. Help me to dress and behave myself in a way that is becoming and glorifying to You. I want to laugh at the future without fear, growing in my faith in You every day. Help me to speak wise and kind words and not to eat the bread of idleness, but to rise up in action for Your kingdom! Help me continue to serve and bless my family and community as a woman who fears You and You alone! Thank You for Your amazing grace. I love You!
